Archer Balanced Fund Celebrates Fifth Anniversary

Portfolio Managers are Optimistic about the Markets and Prepare to Launch Two Additional Funds

INDIANAPOLIS, September 20 – The Archer Funds announced that today marks the fifth anniversary of the launch of Archer Balanced Fund (ARCHX). The fund maintains a balanced portfolio of stocks and bonds and focuses on financially strong companies with competitive market positions and sound management teams which are selling at attractive valuations. Archer employs a team-based approach to managing the fund and capitalizes on the specialized expertise of each of its three portfolio managers Troy Patton CPA/ABV, Steve Demas and John Rosebrough CFA.

Additionally, Archer is excited to announce the upcoming launch of two additional funds: The Archer Income Fund and the Archer Stock Fund.

“These funds are designed to complement our existing Balanced Fund by using targeted investment strategies, but maintain the same team approach, disciplined management and rigorous oversight,” said Patton. “We are more optimistic about the future of the capital markets than some. If we weren’t, we wouldn’t be launching two additional funds.”
